This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE.

The twenty-second volume of the Lineage Book contains the National Numbers, 21001—22000.

In this volume it is noticed that many Daughters have entered the Society, who were born in the West, showing that the interest in the work of the Organization is growing, and not confined to the original States.

As the sources of genealogical information multiply these volumes are made more complete, and become more valuable as books of reference.

William Garrard served as county lieutenant of Stafford county, where he died in 1786.

MRS. HANNAH HODGES HUNT. 21999

Born in Augusta, Maine.

Wife of William Hunt.

Descendant of Ezra Hodges.

Daughter of Ezra Hodges and Mehitable Pollard, his wife.

Ezra Hodges, (1762-1851), enlisted at sixteen and served under different commands in the Massachusetts militia. He was born in Norton, Mass.; died in Vassalboro, Maine.

Also Nos. 5900, 7189, 8786, 9085.

MRS. MARY J. B. CHAMBERLIN. 22000

Born in Auburn, Maine.

Wife of William Mower Chamberlin.

Descendant of John Rogers, of Massachusetts.

Daughter of Andrew Thompson Bean and Caroline H. B. Rogers, his wife.

Granddaughter of George W. Rogers (1793-1858) and Mary D. Hatch, his wife.

Gr.-granddaughter of John Rogers and Rebecca Daggett, his wife.

John Rogers, (1756-1824), enlisted as a private in Capt. Joseph Griffith's company, 1778. He was subsequently a sea captain. He was born in Eastham, Mass., removed to Maine, 1798, where he died in Litchfield.

"See No.—" indicates a reference to that number in the same volume.

"Also No.—" indicates the National number of a "Daughter" who has entered the Society on the same ancestor and whose lineage has been published in a former volume. This is done to link together widely scattered families. If the number should be 4006, it will be in the fifth volume; if 5005, in the sixth volume, etc.

"Real Daughters" are those whose fathers rendered service in the cause of Independence, and their names are printed in italics in the text and index. There are twenty-six "Real Daughters" in this volume.
